GOOD TO KNOW

During a school year, students must choose only one study programme.

PRACTICAL INFORMATION

ACCOMMODATION

Excelia does not have its own student accommodation. Once an exchange student's application has been received and validated by our international office, they will receive access codes to our dedicated accommodation platform.

On this platform, Excelia has grouped together various accommodation options to make it easier to find housing in the cities where our campuses are located. The platform is updated daily with offers from private individuals and real estate professionals:

Studapart - Excelia's accommodation platform

HEALTH INSURANCE

From their very first day in France, international students must have health insurance to cover medical expenses, hospitalisation, surgery, and repatriation (in addition, they must also have civil liability insurance).

- EU students: you will need to provide a copy of your European Health Insurance Card (EHIC) in order to complete your online registration
- Non-EU students: You will need to arrange health insurance before your arrival; however, if your stay in France is longer than 4 months, you are entitled to join the French social security system
